ETHICAL CONDUCT DISCLOSURE AND APPLICANT DECLARATION FORM

SECTION A: ETHICAL CONDUCT DISCLOSURE

Foreign nationals must read and sign this Ethical Conduct Disclosure if they are:

- assisted by anyone with their immigration application; and/or
- recruited by a foreign worker recruiter for a Saskatchewan employer.

This includes paid and unpaid assistance or recruitment unless it is provided by a family member or an organization or individual exempted under The Foreign Worker Recruitment and Immigration Service Act.

Foreign nationals coming to Saskatchewan through Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) immigration or temporary resident classes or through the Saskatchewan Immigrant Nominee Program (SINP) are protected under The Foreign Worker Recruitment and Immigration Services Act (Saskatchewan) and The Immigrant and Refugee Protection Act (Canada).

Protections under The Foreign Worker Recruitment and Immigration Services Act, its regulations and Codes include:

1. No person can, directly or indirectly, charge a fee or expense for recruitment services to you other than an employer. This means you cannot be charged a fee by a foreign worker recruiter, immigration consultant, employer or anyone else for finding you a job with a Saskatchewan employer or helping you find a job.
2. You can be charged fees for immigration services that is, for assistance in preparing an immigration application, representing you with immigration authorities or providing you or your family with settlement services. These services must be provided under a written contract signed by you that identifies the services and their cost. You do not have to pay charges that are not clearly identified in a signed contract.
3. Your immigration consultant, foreign worker recruiter, or employer cannot:
 - (a) produce or distribute false or misleading information;
 - (b) take possession of or retain your passport or other official documents or property;
 - (c) misrepresent employment opportunities, including misrepresentations respecting position, duties, length of employment, wages and benefits or other terms of employment;
 - (d) threaten deportation or other action for which there is no lawful cause;
 - (e) contact you or your family or friends after being requested not to do so by the foreign national;
 - (f) take action against or threatening to take action against you or anyone else for participating in an investigation or proceeding by any government or law enforcement agency or for making a complaint to any government or law enforcement agency; or
 - (g) take unfair advantage of your trust or exploit a foreign national's fear or lack of experience or knowledge.
4. A foreign worker recruiter or paid immigration representative must:
 - a) provide assistance/services to you in a fair, honest, open, timely and competent manner and only with respect to matters that you are capable of handling;
 - b) forward to you all communications addressed to or for you from the SINP or CIC or my potential employer without alteration or undue delay;
 - c) hold in strict confidence, all applicant information related to your immigration or job application or other personal information and will not divulge such information unless authorized by you or required by law; and,
 - d) provide truthful, accurate and complete information in all communication to you, SINP and CIC officials and your potential employer at all times.
5. Your foreign worker recruiter or paid immigration representative must not:
 - a) make any false or inaccurate statement, or present any falsified document, which may mislead provincial or federal immigration authorities about your identity, background, qualifications, experience, or any other relevant matter;

- b) encourage you to apply to a federal or provincial immigration program unless you have a reasonable chance of being eligible;
- c) engage in any unlawful activity in connection with your or any other immigration application to Canada and must not collaborate with anyone who is engaged in any unlawful activity;
- d) behave in an inappropriate manner towards immigration officials in an attempt to influence decisions regarding your application;
- e) knowingly submit or continue with your SINP application if they believe you do not intend to settle (live and work/be an entrepreneur) in Saskatchewan if you do not intend to work for an employer in Saskatchewan as you have indicated in my application; and,
- f) provide advice or create false expectations which would lead you to divest assets, quit your job or relocate without certainty of legal residence and right to work in Canada.

Additionally, whether your immigration representative is paid or unpaid, you should understand that:

- a) your representative is an independent agent and is not a representative of the Government of Saskatchewan or Canada or their ministries and agencies;
- b) using the services of a representative will not result in any special consideration or priority processing of your application to the SINP or CIC;
- c) the Governments of Saskatchewan and Canada do not require you to use the services of a representative in making an application;
- d) you may contact the SINP or CIC directly, even if you have authorized a representative to assist you and act as your representative;
- e) SINP and CIC immigration forms are available free of charge on the Government of Saskatchewan and Government of Canada website and you cannot be charged for those forms; and,
- g) Your representative is personally accountable to you and federal and provincial immigration authorities respecting all aspects of your application.

Conflict of Interest

Your foreign worker recruiter or immigration consultants must, by law, deal with potential conflicts between your best interest and their interests as follows:

1. If they are acting as your immigration consultant and providing recruitment services to your employer or potential employer, they must:
 - a) disclose to both you and the employer that he/she is acting for both parties and the nature of the services that they are providing to each party;
 - b) obtain the written consent of you and the employer to provide those services to both parties; and,
 - c) have signed, written contracts with you and the employer.
2. They must clearly disclose in writing to you if they receive any fee or compensation for referring you to another person.

If you believe your immigration representative, foreign worker recruiter or employer has contravened these rules and guidelines, you may:

- Cancel the appointment of your immigration representative at any time. If you do so, you should immediately advise the SINP and CIC, as appropriate, of the cancellation.
- Make a complaint to the Program Integrity Unit at (306) 787-0006 or immigrationpi@gov.sk.ca. This is an agency of the Government of Saskatchewan that investigates complaints by foreign nationals coming to Saskatchewan.
- Lay a complaint with registered with the Immigration Consultants of Canada Regulatory Council at <http://www.iccre-crec.ca/home.cfm>, in the case of an issue with your paid immigration representative.
- Make a complaint to the CIC office dealing with your application.

I have read and understand the protections for foreign nationals described above.

SECTION B: SINP APPLICANT DECLARATION
(to be completed by foreign nationals applying to the SINP)

I declare that:

- I intend to settle (live and work/be an entrepreneur) in Saskatchewan; or
- I intend to work for the employer indicated in my application (for applicants who require a Saskatchewan job offer in order to be eligible for nomination by Saskatchewan).

Please check one of the following three options:

I declare that I have appointed _____
(please provide printed name of individual)

as my immigration representative to conduct business on my behalf with the SINP. I further declare that my representative has explained to me and I clearly understand the code of conduct expected of my representative.

I declare that I have not appointed a representative to conduct business on my behalf with the SINP; however, I received advice or assistance from organization) in completing this SINP application.

(please provide printed name of individual or organization)

If you choose one of the above options, please check one of the following:

- I have paid/will pay the above-named individual for the service/assistance provided. Please be aware that it is forbidden by law for anyone to provide immigration services to a foreign national coming to Saskatchewan unless they a Registered Canadian Immigration Consultant with the ICCRC and licenced by Saskatchewan or a member of a provincial law society.
- I have not paid/will not pay the above-named individual for the service/assistance provided.

I declare that I have completed my SINP application on my own with no paid/unpaid assistance from anybody/organization and I have not appointed a representative to conduct business on my behalf with the SINP.

By appointing a representative, the applicant authorizes the representative to conduct business on their behalf with the SINP. The applicant also authorizes the SINP to provide information regarding their application to the representative.

Please note that it is against the law to give false or misleading information to the Government of Saskatchewan or any of its officials. If you have a representative and do not disclose the name of your representative to the SINP, your application may be refused. A representative who advises an applicant to provide false or misleading information is also breaking the law.
